LA/B/7/586/81

The following Bill which was introduced in the Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu on 27th March, 1981 is hereby published for general information in pursuance of the provisions of Rule 136 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business of the Legislative Assembly.

The Goa, Daman and Diu Village Panchayats Regulation (Amendment) Bill, 1981
(Bill No. 1 of 1981)

further to amend the Goa, Daman and Diu Village Panchayats Regulation, 1962.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu in the Thirty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Village Panchayats Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1981.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of Section 2.— In section 2 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Village Panchayats Regulation, 1962 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Regulation'), in clause (a), the words and brackets "other than boundary wall not exceeding eight feet in height" shall be deleted.

3. Amendment of Section 5.— In section 5 of the Regulation, after sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

"(4) when there is no quorum for any meeting, after fifteen minutes from the appointed time the meeting shall stand adjourned for half an hour and when it re-assembles no quorum shall be necessary to transact the business communicated to member in the agenda of the appointed meeting."

4. Amendment of Section 20.— In section 20 of the regulation after the existing proviso, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"provided further that whenever the Chairman is on leave, or expires or resigns or disqualified, the Vice-chairman shall exercise all the powers and perform all the functions and duties of the Chairman under this regulation.”.

5. Amendment of Section 23.—In section 23 of the Regulation,—

(1) in sub-section (2), for the words “but the resignation shall not take effect until it is accepted by the Panchayat.” the words “and such resignation shall take effect from the date of its receipt by the Chairman.” shall be substituted;

(2) in sub-section (3), for the words “but the resignation shall not take effect until it is accepted by him.”, the words “and such resignation shall take effect from the date of its receipt by the Lieutenant Governor.” shall be substituted.

6. Amendment of Section 27.—In section 27 of the Regulation, after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

“(3) The Secretary shall function under the supervision and control of the Chairman and he shall assist the Chairman in the execution of his various functions under the Regulation.”.

Statement of Objects and Reasons

The clause (a) of section 2 defines the term “buildings” and exempts the boundary wall not exceeding eight feet in height which in fact means person can built any such wall without obtaining permission of the Village Panchayat. Goa villages are criss-crossed by traditional footpaths/path ways and land lord take benefit of this exemption to block such path-ways by constructing boundary walls. This has created chaotic situation in the villages and in order to enable the Panchayat to safeguard its traditional rights the suggested amendment in the definition is necessary.

It is the experience of various Village Panchayats that there is never a sufficient attendance to make a quorum for the Gram Sabhas meetings. As per the rules when any Gram Sabha lacks quorum, a fresh Gram Sabha is to be convened with a notice period required to the original Gram Sabha, but it so happens that the attendance for the next Gram Sabha becomes still poorer and on the other hand consideration of the agenda gets delayed. The amendment contemplated for section 5 is therefore to permit the chairman to hold a Gram Sabha on the same day of the first calling after due adjournment.

Presently an anomalous situation is created when the Chairman goes on leave, resigns or expires without the Chairman himself delegating his powers to the Vice-chairman as such the amendment to section 20 is very imperative for smooth and continuous function of the Panchayat.

As per section 23 of the Act a resignation of the Vice Chairman or Chairman becomes effective only on it being accepted by the Panchayat and Lt. Governor respectively. Such a procedure creates a great delay and most of the times the Panchayat becomes impotent in the absence of the Chairman and/or vice Chairman. Hence the amendment.

Under section 27 the Secretary of the Panchayat is to be appointed by the Lt. Governor; however nowhere in the Act his functioning is prescribed nor has the Government framed any rules under section 65(2)(e), viz. the appointment, powers, duties and conditions of service of the Secretary. Such a legal lapse very often creates confrontation between the elected Chairman and the Secretary as the Secretary sometimes refuse to carry out the instructions of the Chairman. The Scheme of the Act also envisages that the Secretary should function under the supervision and control of the Chairman as such the amendment is of importance to fill up the lacuna in the Act.

Financial Memorandum

The Bill does not entail any additional expenditure.

further to amend the Goa, Daman and Diu Village Panchayats Regulations, 1962.

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Village Panchayats Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1981.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of Section 15.—In section 15 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Village Panchayats Regulation, 1962, in the first proviso, for the expression, “as soon as may be after the occurrence of a vacancy” the expression “within a period of six months from the date of occurrence of the vacancy” shall be substituted.

Statement of Objects and Reasons

According to the first proviso to section 15 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Village Panchayats Regulation, 1962 a casual vacancy in a ward shall be filled as soon as may be after the occurrence of a vacancy. Though the expression “as soon as may be” used in the section might have intended to fill up the vacancy at the earliest opportunity, in practice it is found that the vacancies are filled very late and sometimes remained unfilled. The non-filling of the vacancy hazards the working of the Panchayat to a great extent, hence it is felt that the maximum period within which the vacancy should be filled should be specified in the Act, rather than leaving it elastic. The Bill seeks to achieve this purpose and prescribes the maximum limit as six months.

(2) sub-sections (9) and (10) shall be deleted and the remaining sub-sections shall be re-numbered.

(3) In sub-section (9) as re-numbered, the word, brackets and figure "or (10)" shall be deleted.

Statement of Objects and Reasons

In democracy to protect the Members from undue influence of coercion, it is imperative that election to such high position is done by secret ballot. Hence, the amendment to Section 52 with the addition of 3A.

2. It has been observed that dubious means are utilised to prevent removal of President/Vice President by forcing members to abstain from the meeting called for the purpose. Besides, even no-confidence motions against Governments are passed by simple majority present and voting. Hence, amendment of section 56(1) was necessitated while addition of sub-section (5) is necessary as the Act is not clear on the points and sometimes if the resolution is taken as one, then members who have confidence in one, and no-confidence against the other will not be able to express accordingly unless separate voting is done. Addition of sub-section (6) is for reasons as stated in para 1.

3. The work load of municipalities has multiplied tremendously. Hence, it is impossible for a President/Vice President to do his duty unless he contributes between 4 to 8 hours of work. The present state of affairs in many municipalities will prove the point. However, one cannot expect a councillor to devote so much time for public service unless he is adequately rewarded. Even ordinary councillors are burdened with multifarious problems by the voters which demand much of their time, besides the hours spent in the meeting hall. Hence, the amendment to Section 62.

4. Presently any development work planned by the council has to go for technical sanction to a competent authority recommended by the Government, if the estimated value of the work is above Rs. 20,000 in case of A and B Class Councils and Rs. 10,000/- in case of C class. Due to all round rise in prices there is hardly any work which can be taken up by the council without technical sanction. In view of this devious means are sometimes used by breaking up work orders in order to be within the financial limits. Technical sanction, besides, is a time consuming process which delays developmental works. Hence the amendment to Section 69.

5. Section 73 is outdated in as much as the lowest paid post in the council has a salary of Rs. 210/- exclusive of allowances. Many times the post of labourers and/or attendants are to be filled with urgency. But under the present position of law it is not possible. So that the council may have powers to do so, the amendment to Section 73 is suggested.

6. Many councils have buildings which are given out on rent for residential purposes. Section 88 clearly determines the extent of lease period in case of all immovable properties including buildings of the council. Once flats/buildings are rented to public for residence, it is wellnigh impossible due to humanitaries as well as political reasons to terminate their lease. Hence the amendment.

7. Presently, any contracts for the execution of any work or supply of any material, exceeding the expenditure of Rs. 1000/- a notice by advertisement in local paper is necessary to invite tenders. This is an expensive and time consuming process. Hence the amendment.

8. Amendment to Section 161 is suggested in view of the increase in the rate of Bank interest, hence nobody should misuse the law to draw benefits out of municipal funds.

9. Amendment to Section 184. — There are clashing opinions given on the operation and application of section 184 specially sub-sections 8 to 10. Whether Chief Officer has powers to demolish a construction once completed or he should file a complaint in the Court is a point that is agitating the minds and very often this ambiguity is misused to permit illegal construction. Illegal construction has been the curse of growing towns hence this amendment is imperative to prevent further deterioration of towns. Although this alone will not solve the problem of illegal constructions — as Government must provide housing to the increasing population specially in industrial areas — it will go a long way to enable well intentions of local self authorities to take appropriate steps.
